Terrific Storms and Heavy Rains.

W. W. Marsh, the Winter Place
weather prophet, sums up weather conditions for July, as follows:

The month of July will be hot and sultry, with terrific storms and at times heavy rains covering the entire country. The heat at times will be intense, causing many protrations in all sections of the country. The heat waves will be frequent but of short duration, being relieved by violent storms. Hurricanes will occur along the gulf coast and on the Gulf of Mexico, on the Atlantic Ocean and coasts. On the great lakes and states adjoining, cyclones and tornadoes over the states of the West and Northwest; hot weather. Violent storms and at times heavy rain, high wind, hail and electrical display will occur over the Ohio Valley--over the states of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky,
West Virginia, Tennessee, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Texas and the Southern and Gulf states. The severe storms of heavy rains in the valleys of the big central rivers
will cause floods in the low lands.
The southern rivers will also attain flood stages of water.

To those living in the states of Iowa, Minnesota, Dakota, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Missouri, Arkansas, Georgia and Alabama should protect themselves, property and stock

clones between the dates of the 6th

18th, 22nd and 26th and 28th and 30th, and those living near or along the Ohio river and southern streams and tributaries, and those having property on these streams to protect against damaging storms of high wind and heavy rains and rapidly rising waters between same dates, and those in the Eastern,
New England, Southern and Gulf States to protect against floods and violent storms between the same dates. The storms during July will be frequent and severe over greater portion of the country.

GENERAL FORECAST.

Between 4th and 7th hot wave.
Very hot weather will prevail, covering the greater portion of the country, causing heat prostrations.

storm on the waters, Great Lakes, Atlantic Ocean, Gulf of Mexico and coasts, and over the Gulf and Southern States. Violent thunder storms, heavy rain and cyclonic wind and severe lightning over the
states of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky,

River valleys.

EDITOR'S OUTING.

Journey to Omaha Through Six Great Farming States.

Impressions By the Way, Gained
From a Car Window Inspection of the Country.

(Editorial Correspondence.)

Omaha, Neb., July 7.—The National Editorial Association will hold its eighteenth annual meeting here this week. The meetings proper do not begin until to-morrow, but already about 100 delegates are on the grounds and a reception will be given to-night at the principal theatre, at which address of welcome by the mayor and other prominent citizens will be made and responded to by officers of the Association.

The journey from Hopkinsville to Omaha is through one of the richest agricultural regions on earth. It is 250 miles to St. Louis, 327 miles over the Burlington Route to St. Joseph and thence up the Missouri valley by the same Route 121 miles to Omaha. This part of the trip is made through Western Iowa, with Nebraska in sight all the way just across the Missouri river. Council Bluffs is opposite Omaha and one of the several bridges over the Missouri is between these two cities. After passing through the mining district of Christian and Hopkins counties,
the rich farm lands of the Ohio valley are traversed. Wheat cutting is over in this region and the lightness of the crop was everywhere shown by the scattering array of shocks in the fields. Corn in the Kentucky counties was looking well and the crop prospects seemed to be very bright. Across the river at Henderson we encountered immediately the new style of corn planting. The soil is so productive that the farmers have adopted the plan of drilling in rows to be plowed only one way, the stalks standing only 12 inches apart in the rows.
This is said to double the yield of corn, where the soil will stand it.
All through Indiana and Illinois,
along the line of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, the corn was planted this way, and while the corn is not so advanced as in Kentucky, it gives promise of a fine crop, with favorable seasons from now on. The fertile prairie lands of "Egypt" are said to be rich for ten feet down and there is no limit to the productiveness of this garden spot of Illinois.

At East St. Louis there is still much evidence of the damage done by the recent floods. Hundreds of workmen were seen busily engaged in clearing away the piles of rubbish and repairing the damage to railroads and buildings.

As we passed through Evansville we were intensely interested growing out of the riot the night before, caused by a mob's attack on the jail in attempt to lynch a negro who had killed a policeman. The worst part of the riot was in progress about the time we passed through the city, but the details were not known until we reached St. Louis.

The big Union Depot at St. Louis is one of the finest in the country.
It is said there are from 20,000 to 50,000 arrivals and departures at this depot every day. Yet there is no confusion, and no difficulty in learning what to do. There is an Information Bureau and those leaving Missouri who have to be shown,
can find a man to answer questions
who cannot be stumped by any interrogation. He can tell anything you want to know about the arrivals and departures of trains, or about connections anywhere that St. Louis railroads lead to.

Having several hours to wait here for the fast night train to Omaha, we put in the time very pleasantly by visiting the beautiful Forest Park. This is reached by taking the LaCade avenue car at the depot and going out five miles
through a residence section of St.
Louis. There is a great deal of

PROMINENT CITIZEN

Passes Away at His Home in This City.

Mr. Joseph C. Woolridge, one of Hopkinsville's most highly esteemed citizens, passed away about 4 o'clock Wednesday morning at his home on South Main Street.

While he had been an invalid for several years, he had only been confined to his bed about ten days.
Death was due to a general breaking down of the system.

Mr. Woolridge was 73 years old and was born in Frankfort. He was a son of the late Dr. T. M.
Woolridge, who came to Western Kentucky many years ago.

Decided lived near Montgomery
for a number of years, but removed to this county when a young man and engaged in agricultural pursuits. Later he engaged in the tobacco business in this city and operated a warehouse with his brother-in-law, Esq. S. G. Buckner.

He was married in 1858 to Miss Annie Buckner, of Oak Grove. His wife died several years ago. He is survived by five children, three sons and two daughters.

Mr. Woolridge was a most excellent citizen and leaves a host of friends to mourn their loss. He had been a member of the Baptist church for more than fifty years.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church yesterday morning at 10 o'clock by Dr. C. H. Nash and the interment took place in Hopewell Cemetery.

MR. DUFFY'S TROPHY.

Large Rattler Killed on the Wiley
Higgins Farm.

While a surveying party, accompanied by Mr. John C. Duffy, attorney for the Higgins heirs, was making a survey of the Wiley Higgins farm west of Gracey, this week, a large rattlesnake was found. Duffy discovered the coiled reptile lying upon the ground, near one of the party, and dispatched it with a stick. The rattler was 40 inches in length, as thick as a man's wrist and had five rattles and a button. Mr. Duffy secured the rattles and will keep them as a souvenir of the occasion.

The Courier-Journal has an appropriate article on the "Day we Desecrate." It says: "Five hundred dead and 5,000 wounded tell the story of a day and a night of riot, done in the name of patriotism, not estimating the consequential losses incident to the brain racking, nerve-killing noise perpetrated with cruel persistence and shameful inconsideration immediately outside the sick-room, regardless alike of the law of decency and the orders of doctors and the entreaties of relatives and nurses." No other civilization would permit the use of high explosives by children and other unaccustomed to handle them as do Americans on July 4 and Christmas. Our disregard of life is manifested on these happy occasions.

The long fight made by J. M. McKnight, the former Louisville banker, to keep out of prison, ended in defeat Tuesday when in the United States Court Judge Evans ordered the prisoner to be taken to Atlanta to serve out his six years. It has been about four years since McKnight began his fight to keep out of the penitentiary. He had five trials, and there were four verdicts against him. His trouble with the government grew out of his wrecking the German National Bank. He was convicted of the misuse of the bank's funds while President. His friends claim the bank was in solvent before he took charge.

Dr. Harris Brown Parker, of Petersburg, Ky., died of yellow fever on Ship Island, near Mobile.

A GREAT CONTEST.

Entertainment at Gracey Was a Big Success.

The Gracey fiddlers' contest was a great success in every way. There were about 400 people in attendance and the receipts amounted to nearly $100.

In the contest between Trigg and Christian counties, Christian won. In the contest between quarters of Hopkinsville, Gracey and Garrettsburg, Hopkinsville won. The Hopkinsville performers, a list of which appeared in Tuesday's Kentuckian, all won valuable prizes.

The old fiddlers were royally entertained, and the managers, Messrs. H. C. McGehee and B. W. Cowherd, are to be congratulated upon the excellent manner in which the entertainment was conducted.

The address of welcome was delivered by J. Barrish Meacham, and the response by T. W. F. Randle, of this city. Mr. E. Bartley was master of ceremonies. The judges were: Mr. W. J. Hopson and Dr. J. J. Backus, of Gracey, and Prof. O. G. Hille, of Hopkinsville.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Three Hopkinsvillians Narrowly Escape Drowning.

Mr. Edmund Starling and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Littlehales, who recently left this city to make their homes in Seattle, Washington, on Puget Sound, while taking an outing last week, narrowly escaped a watery grave, owing to their unfamiliarity with its tides and currents, and with the art of navigation. For a time the boat glided "over a summer sea," where glassy waters reflected a cloudless sky, when ere the little party, unconscious of the disagreeable fact that the boat was drifting helplessly and aimably out to sea. They struggled violently to return their course, but in vain. The boat made no headway, when at last a final effort was made, with success, to return to shore and the frightened party escaped.

FELL FROM CAR

And Has Since Been in Delirious Condition.

Walter T. Ledford, who was hurt by falling off a moving car, was taken to his home in Roaring Springs on the advice of his physicians. His brother and son accompanied him. When Mr. Ledford left he was very much better. He has been in a delirious since the accident, although he becomes rational once in a while.

He remembers everything that happened before the accident but he does not remember how he came to fall off of the car on anything about the accident. His doctors say that he will be well in a few weeks. The only fear of his friends is that the injury may affect his mind.—Paducah News-Democrat.

SOME FINE FISH.

A Heavy Cat Hangs Mr. Dunlap's Hook.

Messrs. A. E. Dunlap and F. J. Forthington, of Pee Dee, while fishing in Little River, near Sulphur Spring, one day this week, caught a catfish which weighed 13½ pounds. The fishermen were in a boat and experienced considerable difficulty in landing the fish. It was the largest specimen caught in that stream, above Cadiz, in several years. Mr. Dunlap also landed a four-pound trout.

Thrown Against Wire Fence.

Dr. Austin Bell and his wife and little child were the victims of an accident Monday night that came near resulting fatally. The family were out driving near their home, when Dr. Bell saw an object in the road, calculated to frighten his horse, in attempting to turn around the buggy was upset and fell against a barbed wire fence. The horse dragged the vehicle and its occupants several yards. Mrs. Bell was badly cut by the wire and the baby's head and arm were lacerated. Dr. Bell was dragged a considerable distance and sustained some bad bruises and cuts.

The Perfect Liver Medicine.

Mrs. M. A. Jolly, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine, and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit, and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator, 50c at R. C. Hardwick's.

BRIDGE REPAIRED

Saved From Terrible Death.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt, of Bargertown, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Guaranteed Bottle 50c and $1.00 Trial Bottle at R. C. Hardwick's Drug Store.

"AT HOME"

Given in Honor of Miss Edmundson, of Hopkinsville.

Miss Bertha Mann's "At Home," given in honor of Miss Edmundson, of Hopkinsville, was a great success. Despite the rain, Miss Mann's parlors were crowded, after delightful refreshments, a musical program was carried out so successfully by Miss Edmundson that the guests, on departing carried with them the echo of sweet notes, that will reverberate in after years and bring back to memory the enjoyable evening. Those present were Misses Annie Beaumont, Nora Ledford, Irene Lloyd, Adeline Lackey, Lorine Allen, Rena Graham, Ruth Paine, Katie Graham, Mattie Belle Edmundson, Bertha Mann, Messrs. McDonald, Will Jenkins, Milner, Lawrence O'Neal, Hugh Massie, Mose Levy, Guy Dority, Gus O'Brien, Douglas Graham, Cox, Will Hall and wife. Mesdames W. E. Keith and F. A. Trice.—Pembroke Journal.

Domestic Trouble.

It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic troubles occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in stomach and liver trouble. They not only relieve you, but cure. 25c. at R. C. Hardwick's drug store.

FINE SULPHUR WATER.

The Hammond Well at Gracely Enjoying a Boom.

Gracely's sulphur well is on a boom. Some time ago Esq. T. J. Hammond had a well dug on his premises in that place and at a depth of about 80 feet a fine stream of sulphur water was struck. An analysis of the water has not yet been made but it is believed that it also contains medicinal properties other than sulphur. The water is very cold and is sought by nearly everybody in the town.

UNDER FULL HEADWAY

Popular Cerulean Rapidly Filling With Guests.

Cerulean Springs, Ky., July 6, 1903. EDITOR KENTUCKIAN:

Cerulean is now under full away with a good crowd. The glorious 4th was fully observed. The trains throughout the day brought crowds besides those who came in by other conveyances. The day was spent in various sports. At 8:30 p. m., the fire works, under the supervision of an expert, commenced in all the blaze and glory of colored lights followed by spin wheels, sky rockets etc., to the great delight of the crowd assembled. No accident is recorded. After the fireworks the ball took place. Many present were in full evening dress and all their loveliness. To sum up the day in a few words it was a most pleasant, enjoyable occasion.

Sunday was another good day. Big crowd all day and the hotel has done a good business.

The season is fully launched and every train is bringing in regular customers.

Those present who are enjoying the good water, fried chicken, restful sleep and all the different games are as follows:

Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Wilson, Miss Hooker, Miss Baker, Miss Bessie Wilson, Lexington, Miss: Miss Wright of Pickens, Miss, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fuqua, Jr., of Lexington, Ky.; Hon. Jas. B. Garnett and wife, of Cadiz, Ky.; Dr. Park Bacon and wife, Mrs. Clarence Hinkle and daughter, Mr. Jacob Lehnert and Mrs. Newton, of Evansville, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Ellen Garner and Miss Coghlan, of Louisville; Miss Goggia Coon, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Dr. T. L. Bacon, Miss Maggie Mullen and J. D. Ware, Hopkinsville; Mrs. A. H. Cardin, View, Ky.; Mrs. S. B. Sparlock, Mr. E. S. Read, of Nashville, Tenn.; Mr. Sweitzer, wife and children, St. Louis; Mr. W. D. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Utterback and children, Mr. and Mrs. Covington and children, Paducah; Judge Hancock, Cadiz; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McElrath and child, Murray; Miss Lettie Harper and Miss Geraldine Hall are visiting Mrs. Sam Boyd and are frequent visitors at the Springs; Mrs. W. A. McCarty was a visitor Sunday and reports that it is expected that her brother, Admiral Terry, of the U. S. navy, will be a visitor during his visit home in the near future. Mrs. and Mr. Robert Ellison and Mrs. Godwin are due in a few days for the summer. Their rooms are already reserved. Geo. Gibson and wife, of Dallas, Texas, have sent notice to reserve rooms. There is quite a number coming and going.

The match games of ten pins each morning create excitement, especially when playing for the ginger snaps. The progressive game of checkers was lively and full of vim. Miss Wright won the capital prize Saturday. Miss Hooker won the capital prize this morning. Mrs. A. H. Cardin is the best all round player on the hill. There are no games of cards but what she fully understands and enjoys.

The crowd of young ladies are full of life and they make it lively for the boys. They are trotting Judge Hancock and Mr. Saunders a lively game, but the boys have not yet given up, even if they do look weary at times.

Miss Baker does not play cards but she is the crack rifle shot of the bunch and when she shot at the ice house and hit a cow. Capt. Pool thought it time to put up the rifle.

It is hard to report the exact crowd as each train brings in new people and takes some home.

The table is surely unending by any resort and attaches about the place seems to make it a point to do all they can for the pleasure and comfort of the guests.

Respectfully, PARK HEATON.

A Very Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by R. C. Hardwick Price 50 cents.

FOR SYSTEMIC CATARRH

Peculiar to Summer Pe-ru-na Gives Prompt and Permanent Relief.

C. S. Rhoads, Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "For the past two years I have hardly known what it was to have a sweet, restful night's sleep. Cares and overwork seemed to weigh me down more than it should or would had I been able to get my proper rest. My doctor was unable to help me and ordered me South for a complete rest and change. As this was simply out of the question, and as I had heard several of the men under me speak of how much Peruna had helped them, I decided to try it and am glad indeed that I did. Six bottles made a new man of me. I eat well, sleep well and get up feeling refreshed and rested."

"My official duties are not half so hard and I certainly have good reasons to heartily endorse Peruna."—C. S. Rhoads.

C. S. Rhoads.

Judge Wm. T. Zeno, of Washington, D. C., writes from 225 N. Capital street, Washington, D. C.:

"I take pleasure in saying that I can cheerfully recommend the use of Peruna as a remedy for catarrhal troubles and a most excellent tonic for general conditions."—Wm. T. Zeno.

Mrs. Amanda Morrill, 180 Reid street, Elizabeth, N. J., writes: "I have been sick over two years with nervous prostration and general debility, and heart trouble. Have had four doctors; all said that I could not get well. I had not walked a step in nine months, suffering with partial paralysis and palpitation of the heart every other day, and had become so reduced in flesh as to be a mere skeleton, weighing only 85 pounds."

"Up to this date I have taken Peruna for seven months. It has saved my life."

JOLLY PARTY

Spend a Pleasant Day On Little River.

Misses Lillian, Elizabeth and Margaret Foyd and Mr. Eli Adams and Miss Rosa Lee Adams, all of the Church Hill neighborhood, entertained in a unique and enjoyable way their guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Sanderfer, and Mr. Ford Massey, of Louisville, and Miss L. Worrall, of Philadelphia, by giving a fishing party on Little River. The party went out in buggies and carriages at an early hour, selecting a secluded and romantic spot. All sorts and conditions of amusements were indulged in, including love-making in the tree tops, acting to absolute perfection the play of Romeo and Juliet, on island rocks with picturesque cliffs for a back ground. While the fish went swimming by, one of the chaperones slid gracefully into the river for the pleasure of their company. Romeo waded out with a seine into mid stream and caught a sucker to put on Juliet's hook, while other gentlemen shot snakes from ambush as they drifted along. As the day speedily passed the pleasures increased and the fish were hauled to higher and more accessible grounds, where several pounds were fried and broiled by the gentlemen.

A very elaborate repast was served, to which the whole party did ample justice, more especially two of the gentlemen, one consuming several eggs, as well as quite a number of the fish. Knight-hood was in flower in the shaded woodlands. This happy, congenial party wound their winding way homeward, highly pleased with the day's pleasure.

as I can safely testify. I have not felt so well in five years, having walked over one mile without ill result, and have also gained thirty pounds since commencing to take Peruna. In fact, I cannot praise it too highly."—Mrs. Amanda Morrill.

Peruna never fails to prevent systemic catarrh or nervous prostration if taken in time. Peruna is the most prompt and permanent cure for all cases of nervous prostration caused by systemic catarrh known to the medical profession.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

FOOTBALL.

It is to be introduced and encouraged in French Army.

Football, says the London Telegraph, is to be encouraged in, or, rather, introduced into, the French army. "Pou-pou" hitherto has been practically a stranger to outdoor sports. All he has had to do when on leave for the day has been to wander about the streets of his garrison town or sit sipping sirups—when it is not absinthe—at a cafe. He is now being taught to appreciate football. The game has so well caught on in the few regiments which have yet learned it that colonels all over the country are thinking of providing their men with means of playing it. The little soldiers, in their red trousers and gray flannel shirts, look rather funny when learning the mysteries of dribbling and the serimage. But if they do somewhat lack sinew and weight, they have plenty of agility, swiftness and go. The chief difficulty experienced by colonels anxious to develop a love of the king of winter games among their men is the question of ways and means. An original scheme is now afoot for providing the necessary equipment for football to as many regiments as possible. A sort of benefit association match is to be played between an English scratch team and a French eleven. The proceeds of the taking at the gates will be entirely devoted to buying the requisite "leather," goal posts, etc., for pion-pion footballers. The match ought to draw a considerable sum of money, as the English team will be a strong one, including several ex-internationalists.

MARRIED IN MEXICO.

Will Ragsdale and Miss Lula Hickman Wedded.

An Alamogordo, New Mexico, paper has the following account of the marriage of a well-known young man, formerly of this place:

"Last Monday evening at 9:05 o'clock, at the residence Mrs. M. E. Scott occurred the marriage of Miss Lula Hickman and W. E. Ragsdale. Rev. C. R. Taylor being the officiating clergyman. Announcement of the marriage occasioned considerable surprise among friends of the contracting parties and it is stated that several of the guests were taken by surprise as the ceremony proceeded. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse O'Neal, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. W. W. Harvey, and W. W. Smith.

The groom is associated with his brother here in the mercantile business, and the bride has been a very popular young lady of Alamogordo for several years, and employed at the E. H. Pierce company. All of her acquaintances are friends and she is held in high esteem for her amiable disposition and excellent social qualities."

This Is The Young Man's Day.

"The hope of the nation is the rising generation," but the dependence of the nation is on the risen generation, and we are the risen generation. The young man of today have enjoyed advantages, in most cases far beyond those enjoyed by their fathers; advantages purchased in many, many instances by the sacrifices of those who loved them and believed in them; and the world rightfully demands much at this time of its young men. The possibilities for good possessed by the young men of our generation are beyond the power of man to conceive. If you could save the young man of this generation you would practically have saved the world, for nothing could withstand the force of such an accumulation of consecrated energy.

I am one of those who believe that the world—thanks to such agencies as the Young Men's Christian Association—is becoming better. I am near enough to earth to realize and appreciate the vastness and the fierceness of forces contending for evil; but when we lift ourselves, as we can at times, high enough from the ground and look back far enough, we can see points at which great moral issues have been fought and settled standing like monuments on old battle-fields which mark the irresistible advance of the forces contending for righteousness. In such moments, we can draw a deep breath of hopefulness and gain new vigor for our share in the struggle—be it large or small. The world was never so kind to young men, it seems to me, as it now. The idea that responsibility must go with gray hairs has certainly been discarded, and responsibility is ready and waiting for young shoulders that are able and willing to bear it.

This is the young man's day, and the importance of any work for young men is multiplied in these times. Always worthy of any effort made to save him, the young man of this day is a prize the measure of whose value can only be read in the light of his growing influence and enlarged opportunities. To us of the city this work of saving the young men of our land ought to be a work of supreme importance. What our cities are to be is a question which concerns us vitally. The answer to that question will be found, I think, not alone in the character of the young manhood our cities can produce, but still more largely in the character of the young manhood reared in the wide ranges of country around us. For it is a proposition capable of proof from experience at least, that much of the character that is to mould us and lead us on, we hope, save us in the cities is to be brought to us from pure air and healthier surroundings of the country. To borrow a figure, we of the cities are at the smaller end of the funnel into which is being poured the choicest and best of the country's rising manhood, and it becomes a matter of greatest moment to us that this young manhood shall come to us saved from false ideas and low ideals and dedicated to the service of God and humanity.

There is no agency at work among young men, I suppose, which compares in importance and influence with the work of the society which bears their name. The care and ability shown in the adaptation of the Association methods to its particular work have always commanded my respect and admiration. An association that can take the railway employee and the young man from the counting-room and make them strike hands and hearts from a common purpose and set them at work for a common end—that is a glorious one; that can bring the college man and the factory hand to recognize each other as brothers and acknowledge their dependence on one Father, that Association is doing, in my opinion, more to solve our social problems than teachers or text-book, more to suppress vice than leagues or literature, more to overcome intemperance than politics or pledges, and at the same time is laying broad and deep foundations on which every good enterprise can build.

It is a wise provision of providence that to one man is given one ability, to another a different one. Every man in some way can make an investment in influence in this work.—Association Men.

GREATEST OF ALL.

Is the Personally Conducted Excursion to Old Point.

Those who contemplate taking an outing this summer should avail themselves of the Old Point Comfort trip, which will be taken Aug. 18. A special train, personally conducted, will leave Louisville over the C. & O. road at 1:30 p. m. on that day, reaching the seashore at 3 o'clock p. m., the next day.

These excursions have been run nearly every year for the past 12 years and have grown in popularity with each year. As an evidence of their great popularity, many take the same trip each season, never tiring of "a good thing." Already there have been numerous inquiries about the date and other particulars and the prospects are that the crowd this year will be larger than on any previous occasion.

Parties desiring full information in regard to this most delightful of all summer outings, should write at once to W. A. Wilgus or T. E. Bartley, Hopkinsville.

O'BRIEN AND WHITNEY

Will Be Hanged On Friday, July 24.

Frankfort, Ky., July 7.—The Governor has finally passed on the petition for a commutation of the sentence of Earl Whitney and Claude O'Brien, the youthful murderers of Lexington, declining to interfere, so that they will be hanged on Friday, July 24.

The Governor gave no reasons in writing, but it is well understood that, while he sympathized with the mother of young O'Brien, who visited him about a week ago, he did not feel justified in reducing the sentence.
